

Veteran And Family To Be Evicted Sunday

This is an evicton story. The story of a veteran of the last war, who is being evicted from his home here in Torrance, which is not exactly new although it concerns all of us. This veteran is a long time member of the Torrance police force, married and has three children.

It isn't a pretty picture to see a family evicted from their home, even tho the landlord in this case has been extremely tolerant in his efforts to move into his own home.

What does a man do when he is faced with the problem of being moved out into the streets with his wife and three youngsters?

The veteran who has been confronted with these distressing thoughts for the past several months is Adrian Thornberry, 29-year-old leader in local Boys' Club activities, and a man whom the kids on his block justly admire.

Thornberry and his family will be put from their home Sunday, unless someone in this city or its surrounding area offers them a place to live. He admits he is not particular, and will graciously accept any offer, providing the rental is near his modest policeman's income.

A room, an apartment or a house; somewhere in this vicinity. Is there someone who can oblige?

Anyone with an offer or a lead to a vacancy, please write or call the Torrance Herald and this information will be forwarded to the man we know is deserving.

'Little Women' To Be Presented By Senior Class

The Senior class of Torrance high school will present "Little Women" as its class play on April 25, to the student body of the school, and on April 26, to the general public.

Miss Kay Berntson, a graduate of the Wisconsin University Department of Speech, director of the production, considers "Little Women" an almost perfect comedy for old and young alike—a play full of fun, realistic love, and tenderness.

The cast of characters includes: Jo, June Johnstone and Terry McIntier; Meg, Betty Sommers and Vivian Oliver; Amy, Juanita Quick; Beth, Myrno Lou Fossum and Dorothy O'Brien; Aunt March, Gerry Faren and Sandra Jean Ross; Mrs. March, Joy Begue and Lois Severin; Mr. March, Richard Wimberly; Professor Bhaer, Harry Fuks and Ben Poorbaugh; Mr. Brooke, A. T. Young and Paul Mitchell, and Laurie, Kenneth Kesson.

Aviation education is being promoted by four of the domestic airlines of the United States which maintain special departments staffed by full-time directors and able research and field workers.

STORKatorial

It was truly a tiny rose between five wee thorns at the Torrance Memorial hospital during the past week. Local parents who were visited by the story there almost made it one hundred per cent in male births, but a tiny little rose made her appearance on election day to break up the clique. Children were born to the following parents:

Mr. and Mrs. John Beall, 26302 Pennsylvania ave., boy, April 8, 5:05 a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Odis Crowell, 1919 Andree ave., boy, April 4, 10:24 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hernandez, W. 203rd st., boy, April 7, 2:38 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Parker, 16191 Dalton ave., girl, April 9, 1:25 a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Williams, 2194 W. 235th st., boy, April 8, 7:10 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilson, 2213 Cabrillo ave., boy, April 5, 7:00 p.m.
